¹ Students with CCAF credit for EDT 2813 Instructional Methodology will receive transfer credit for EDAE 3330. In this case, students may need to take 3 hours of free electives at ASU to reach the 120 hour degree requirement.

² Beginning in the 2017-2019 CCAF General Catalog, students have two options to complete their communication core. If students choose to take 6 hours of non-duplicative written communication courses, the student will receive credit for ENGL 1301 and 1302. If students choose to take 3 hours of written communication and 3 hours of oral communication, the student will receive credit for ENGL 1301 and COMM 1315.

³ The See CCAF General Catalog Humanities requirement. The course that a student takes as their CCAF humanities credit will determine if the student receives credit for the Language, Philosophy, and Culture requirement or the Creative Arts requirement.
