

Appendix I:
Degree Planning Worksheet for
Master of Science (M.S.) in Global Security Studies – Regional Studies

Required Courses 9 hours
SEC 6302 Introduction to Security Studies
SEC 6309 Grand Strategy and National Security
SEC 6312 Globalization and International Security
Specialization Area:
Students must choose 9 credit hours from the Regional Studies Specialization area.
Elective Courses:
18 hours of elective courses are required for the degree. 12 hours of elective credit will be awarded to students completing Area Studies courses through the National Security Agency (NSA).
SEC 6323 Security Issues in Europe I
SEC 6325 Security Issues in Europe II
SEC 6327 Security Issues in Asia I	NSA Credit Awarded¹
SEC 6328 Security Issues in North Korea	NSA Credit Awarded²
SEC 6329 Security Issues in Asia II
SEC 6331 Security Issues in Latin America I
SEC 6333 Security Issues in Latin America II
SEC 6335 Security Issues in The Middle East I	NSA Credit Awarded³
SEC 6337 Security Issues in The Middle East II	NSA Credit Awarded⁴
SEC 6341 Security Issues in Africa I
SEC 6343 Security Issues in Africa II

¹3 hrs awarded for completion of any combination of 5 courses: AREA 2104, 2181, 3202, 3203, 3204, 3225, 4202, 4221, 4239

²3 hrs awarded for completion of the following 5 courses: AREA 2109, 3200, 3226, 4237, 5201

³3 hrs awarded for completion of any combination of 5 courses: AREA 2111, 2175, 3006, 3009, 4004, 4602, 5112

⁴3 hrs awarded for completion of the following 5 courses: AREA 2018, 2107, 2170, 2189, 2192

Elective Courses: Student might also choose electives from the National Security Affairs Specialization area. Courses are listed on Global Security Studies M.S. Degree Plan page.

Thesis or Non-Thesis: This degree offers both options, please review the Global Security Studies M.S. Degree Plan page for more information.